NASSGAP will refund the full conference registration fee upon a written request to the NASSGAP treasurer for such refund. The request must be received no later than seven days prior to the start of the conference or the date by which a meal count is required by the conference venue, whichever is earlier. Under extenuating circumstances, the established refund deadline may be waived based on a consensus of the Executive Committee that such circumstances warrant special consideration. When accepting a request for a refund after the established refund deadline, the Executive Committee may authorize a full or partial refund.
